Dedication

MOST of us deck-swabbers don't know the Admiral as well as we'd like to. Fact is, we hardly ever see him officially except at the first assembly of the year . . . and we can't think of anyone who can soften the blow of returning to school better than Dr. Smith. We like the way he beams all over when he talks and makes us feel right at home.

We were reminded recently that the present senior class is the first to have spent its entire high school career in the present S.H.S. facilities, which were enlarged to include the cafeteria and auditorium, largely through the efforts of Dr. Smith, back in 1940.

One other thing we can say of the Admiral, that he doesn't even know himself, is that the inspiration of this year's BANDY came distinctly from his direction. Back at that first September assembly, he said something about all of us setting out on a voyage of discovery lasting from September to June. We can't guarantee the exact wording at this distance, with home port clearly in sight, but the idea is intact.

If you'll accept our apologies, Dr. Smith, for anything unexpected that happened to your theme as we put it on paper, we'd like to make the book yours, too.

DR. VERNON G. SMITH

Foreword

THIS is really a foreword to a back-word . . . a backward glance at our 1946-47 story. We've tried, like the makers of a popular brand of canned goods, to catch our high school experience at "the peak of perfection" and can it within these few pages—not an easy job, you'll admit. We've had to squeeze a little and leave out things, but by and large you'll find inside an accurate record of this year's "voyage of discovery." Some of us may still be a little sea-sick as the old ship is warped into her berth come June 20, but a few years hence most of us will be fondly recalling these happy months spent "aboard" S. H. S.

We hope this book will help you to remember. . . .

SEA	TIME	REMARKS
Slightly troubled	September	Enrolling again was like "reporting for duty" and getting shipshape...
Calm and placid	Fall	...We went "overboard" for our football team and had a "whale of a time" at the Scarsdale-Bronxville dance....
Troubled at first but became placid	Winter	Our "raiders" (not submarine) started to "sink" their opponents....
	June	And we finished up our voyage by passing our regents with the aid of a "lifesaver"....

SEPTEMBER

Scarsdale High did not "open" on September 7; it had to be pried open. By September 8, everyone was imploring Richard to close the door. Three freshman classes fell from the third floor to the basement; the Junior High stairways had been moved around. Some new teachers and some returning to active duty from the armed forces were here to welcome us back. We discovered Miss Chamberlain newly set up in the Deans' office and Mr. Melchior, fresh from the bounding main, ruling the males with his firm hand. Miss Smith was next door, hidden behind a mob of junior girls, and Mr. Fogg was slated to become watch officer for the junior boys as soon as reinforcements arrived to take over his English classes.

Every afternoon the girls sat and watched the boys go out for football practice. Every afternoon the boys stood and watched the cheerleaders practice. Also, it was amazing that all that smoke could rise from nowhere. 'Twas the flame of victory, of course. After a week of book-covering, SSH seating assignments, and confusing change of course slips, came the first week-end. (By the way, how did Midge manage to get into a study-hall full of boys and Mike?) On Friday the 13th, Juan, as befitting our G.O. President, started the year off with an impromptu party. Lucinda entertained us the next night at her house—probably the only place in the world where there was a scarcity of girls.

The following week hurried by, with football practice and new senior cars competing for our attention, especially Hump's station wagon and Dixie's bus with all the fancy buttons. As a slight break in the routine, the G.O. presented the membership assembly, with John, Paul, and Bill, three absolutely irresistible reasons why everyone should spend his hard-earned money for a G.O. ticket. Friday night the Hangar opened in style to revive us after our first ten days of school. That was the night when the privileged few were allowed at the official debut of Poppie's limousine. Saturday we dragged ourselves over to Dave's dance. The $64 question of the evening was "Is your tie a Wembley? It knots, it twists, it crushes—but will it stain?"

Photos by Dahl, Harper, Pond, Shuwall.

The female athletes, Nan, Dip, Red, Seif, and other hardy seniors, could be seen sprinting around the hockey field or straining their weary limbs in Sugarbaker's Torture Chamber. The week ended in glory with Sally Purdy's co-ed pajama party—the girls in jeans and the boys in p.j.'s. Foofie gave a birthday party for Yogi, complete with a cake, firecrackers, and policemen. To top it off, Jack Sherwin entertained those of us who got there at Candlewood Lake. Car trouble seemed to be the main drawback, especially with Gail. In spite of that, Casanova Pond showed up in good form. There were lots of Scarsdalians at the Danbury Fair, too. Remember those auto races, Louis? The month ended with a hiccup at Dave Sproul's cider party. Dave and Dink provided their own high-stepping floor show. With the end of the first month of study (yes, we studied), we were all settled in our harnesses, set to grin and bear the weeks until vacation. This business of being a senior wasn't so bad after all.

OCTOBER

By the time October blew in, we were ready to hibernate for the winter. However, fire drills took us into the great outdoors; assemblies made life more bearable; Mr. Geer unscrambled our politics with an explanation of current world ism's. In spite of the nasty jolt Pelham gave the Raiders in their first grid encounter, Dink's maroon tie and beret and those energetic new cheerleaders gave school spirit a big lift. Then, too, we got our first glimpse in months of Mr. Whipple, whose wavy locks we had missed around the halls. The J.V.'s started off their season on Monday, trouncing Harrison to the delight of a large number of senior girls who watched breathlessly from the sidelines.

A whole new month of week-ends came around (natch), and Paul played host the first Saturday night. The chocolate ice cream was tops, but the joke books were the hit of the evening. Saturday brought on Allen's Barn Dance at Maniac Manor. Lucy found the needle in the hay-loft and was hastened off for a tetanus injection. Everyone was fascinated watching Little Lulu and Big Tom dancing. Too bad they couldn't get together.

Photos by Dahl, Easton, Fischer, Harper, Pearlman, Shuwall.

Elizabeth Wysor, concert star, was imported by Mr. Hubbard for an assembly and sang (all of her) to the accompaniment of suggestive eyebrows. Friday brought the Eastchester game. With cars back in circulation, everyone, except the cheerleaders, managed to get there in time to see Johnny MacD. kick off. However, the Maroon still got noisy, if disorganized, support. The low spirits caused by the rugged but thoroughly lost game were revived at the St. James dance. Swannie, our newest chanteuse, caused quite a sensation in a gorgeous evening dress. The meetings at Hornie's house, supposedly to arrange BANDY publicity, served as a good occasion for Snoyl, Moyer, and Juanito to work out their vocal chords on "Shantytown."

The witching hour on Hallowe'en found most of S. H. S. prowling around Greenacres, much to the horror of the neighbors. As the evening wore on, the various open houses, Du's and Caroline's, found most everybody consuming great quantities of cider and having a very gay time, in spite of the plethora of policemen in the vicinity. And so, October went out on its broom.

NOVEMBER

Recovering after the shock of Hallowe'en, all the girls showed up for a bang-up p.j. party at Dottie's. The party was supposedly indoors, but a surprising number of people found Foof's car a different, if not comfortable, place to sleep. Not that there was much sleep. The road out front was jammed all night with eager beavers from Hodgson's stag party. Colleges seemed to have great attractions the next week-end, at least for Mary Jane, Hornie, and Betsy at Amherst and Genie and Pat at Columbia. Our harried pedagogues got a well-deserved holiday in the form of the New York State Teachers' Conference . . . giving us a day off too!

Meat-hungry Isaac Young found Al Vaccaro a tasty morsel that Saturday afternoon. Everyone went wild at Johnny's extra point—even Jack Lehr, who turned cartwheels down the field. Monday of that gorgeous week-end found Yogi almost falling through the center of his doughnuts in an effort to be the life of the Discussion Club party. He was.

Going back to school that week was made more interesting by the arrival of our senior portraits. Among numerous other obvious talents, that man Lynch could obviously take good pictures. The BANDY assembly was quite the hit of the week (many thanks to Mr. Ryan), with Mitch and Bandy as sandwich-munching first nighters. Esch gave with a snazzy rendition of "Surrender," (Surrender $3.75, that is!). Didn't Jack Lehr make a dainty chorus girl, though—especially next to Lulu?

The French Club went down to see "Cyrano" and absorb some French culture in the way of a really French meal at Gaby's restaurant. About sixty of the hardiest étudiants, along with gourmets Ryan, Reid, and Glendenning, created a gay atmosphere, to which some enterprising seniors added a little bon vin rouge.

Spirits were dampened by our loss of the Big Game, in spite of really first-class playing, especially by Snoyl and "Rapid Ron." The dance at Bronxville was quite an affair with that fotball cake, the fashionable gowns (particularly Mary Jane's and Swannie's identical ones), and Moyer's playing of "Blue Skies."

The next week-end was pretty full, what with the parties at Wahbie's and Jim's and the Dramatic Club's production of "The Importance of Being Earnest"—surely their best job to date and deserving of a bigger audience. Then came that much-needed Thanksgiving vacation, ushered in by the annual Fall Sports Assembly. "Rock" Misenheimer started off the festivities. The dance was fine, but who was the wise guy who kept testing the lights downstairs? Bunny made life more beautiful with an open house. The crowning event of the evening was square-dancing in the living room and Dave's rendition of Danny Kaye. The party was pretty hectic, with numberless people dashing over to the I.H.M. dance and dropping in for a minute to hear Moyer's band and Babs give out at the tenth grade dance. Then to the turkey.

DECEMBER

with a dance the first week-end. Stel, Burch, and Pat managed to be the only female stags there. The next night came one of the biggest dances of the year, 'cause this time the gals asked the guys. Life was never like this; some of the boys were even treated to carnations by their thoughtful dates. Nan and Bill were hosts. As Christmas approached, everywhere argyle socks appeared in the making for some lucky blokes. As the days sped by, between shopping, knitting, and source themes, we managed to take time off to hear the "Messiah" beautifully staged. Friday the 13th didn't seem to bring bad luck to those of us who went to the dance up at the "Y" that night—except maybe Pondo, who had a pie thrown at him. The 20th found us loafing through a half day of school before the vacation officially began. Little work got done, for with the caroling in the halls and the great Christmas spirit about, no one could concentrate on Newton's laws.

Christmas really started with the school dance for students and alumni. In spite of the snow and rain, everyone appeared in his best bib and tucker. The featured event was the crowning of Nancy Keane as BANDY Queen and Harriet Smith and Bobbie Martens as her attendants. The dance was a gala affair, and for days we all tried to get hold of some of those new bubbling lights for our own Christmas trees. The vacation was all a holiday should be, except for a dreadful lack of snow; however, we were so busy shopping, eating, caroling, ice-skating, et al, that we hardly missed it. The Christmas Alumni Dance at the Golf Club, Hank's open house with Di as hostess, the G.C. dance on the 28th, and all the other doin's brought on the year's last gasp in a hurry. Of all the parties on that terrific New Year's Eve, we remember especially Pond's, Sherry's p.j., Liz's—and all the rest of the excitement we needed to see 1947 in properly.

Dear Terry,
Been neat knowing you. I suppose we'll be in the same cell next year so I won't have to say it's been swell being in the same H.R. Have fun this summer
love,

JANUARY

After extricating themselves from various local snowbanks, everyone — well, almost everyone — grudgingly returned to school for the two days between vacation and the week-end and found the

P.S. Never have I been on such a school offices completely jumbled. It wasn't the result of holiday dissipation; they had really been moved; and when we went in to see Miss Chamberlain, there behind the desk was Mr. Archibald Shaw, our new Assistant Superintendent, who, we later discovered, was a sharp basketball player. Mr. Withers, also of many talents, finally showed up to take Mr. Fogg's duties. Friday finally showed up, too, and with it the annual subscription dance at the Golf Club. No subway was ever like that! So many people crowded the place that no one even noticed the gorgeous regalia — except for Peter's elegant white tie and tails. John and Rod were seen dashing madly about snapping photos for their memory book—and ours.

The next week Signifer announced its new members, the largest number ever admitted at one time. By Friday night, after a week of hard work (The college entrance officers were breathing down our necks), we were ready to relax—or something—at Mitch's dance. It was a happy time, with the snow right outside (just right for getting one's face washed, eh Bev?); and the strong-arm tactics of Jim Fallon and Bill Beck kept out all gate-crashers. Willie's window was the only casualty. In the middle of the week, to take us out of the dull, old, everyday world, came Mr. Raeger and the G.E. House of Magic. Mr. R. was later entertained at Danny's by some of the local citizenry. The next week was Louis' triumph, the De-Molay Dance at the Harwood Building. Though the dancing occupied most everybody, the "Yale News" had its share of popularity in the back room. Also sharing honors was Mare's new turtle. The next night Di gave a party. Contrary to the popular belief, it was quiet and well-ordered.

As something new in the way of education, the combined choruses took a day off to attend a Fred Waring rehearsal. Everyone just had to sing on the bus to keep from freezing. Thursday also brought something new in the way of assemblies, as Johnny Bothwell and three—oh so blonde—vocalists gave out to the delight of the hepcats. We hear two teachers went out for aspirin. (One of them was heard to say, "Well, I could have thought of Ted Lewis, if they'd just given me a little more time!)

Friday night Milford gave a party for Bill Sperry's birthday. Among the gifts Bill received were a beer mug, a black leather bow tie, and assorted paper dolls. No stags were allowed, but somehow Dillon and Allen crept in. After cramming madly for Regents, blight of our lives, midterm marks ushered in the end of the first half of our senior year.

FEBRUARY

Moyer's party for the basketball team tided us over from January thaw to February freeze. All the boys on the squad, plus their dates (Jack and Beryl, Hap and Bobbie, to mention a few) spent the evening very enjoyably munching on Jack's fancy cake with VARSITY 1947 on it. The more energetic even danced. The following week featured two assemblies: a G.O. program highlighted by Jack's pep talk on the new cafeteria system (We really needed it.) and a Dramatic Club presentation of "The Valiant." We were pleasantly surprised to discover that Sherwin can really act. Looking around the audience, we noticed all the happy couples (Midge & Mike, Dick & Janice, Donn & Betty, Bird & Henstie, Don & Jane, and lots of others) sitting together thanks to the new senior privilege. We also spied Stel and Rhoda proudly showing off their Florida tans, to the envy of all us palefaces.

After taking the Bronxville game easily and beautifully, we took advantage of the belated snow. The Hangar had a dance, but most of the seniors could be found up at the Golf Club, skiing, tobogganing, or sitting around the big fire. After being chilled to the bone, the lucky ones trooped over to Edmonds' for some welcome hot chocolate. Abe Lincoln provided us with a day off, and Joe Misenheimer celebrated with a party; those who weren't foolhardy enough to lose their money at blackjack or freeze in the snow outside, danced. Back to school after a day of rest (?) to hear the band, which really sounds professional this year, give a preview of its coming concert. A high spot on the show was Glasel's impromptu arrangement of "Tea for Two."

Friday brought a heartbreaker on the court against Pelham. However, it being Valentine's Day, we counted our billets doux and our money and headed for the St. James Dance, after being measured for caps and gowns. Saturday night we managed to work through the crowd at Genevieve Smith's vice-versa party, after negotiating the "Open-the-door-Richard" sign at the front entrance. (I wonder why it is that vice-versa dances are always so much more crowded than regular ones. Could it be that Scarsdale girls are less shy than the boys?)

Tuesday the 18th started something new in Scarsdale Hi—the Senior Breakfast. From 8 until 10, seniors and available faculty consumed great quantities of doughnuts, listened to Mr. Young's thought-provoking talk on colonial problems, and sang loudly, if hesitantly, Mr. Farrow's new school songs, with the help of Moyer, Hornie, and Johnny G. We also discovered that it was Mr. Nelson's 14th anniversary with the school. The whole affair made a big hit, and everyone went back to classes with high hopes for another senior breakfast soon. That afternoon the team surprised the county by defeating Eastchester on their own court for the first time in two years. Who are those Smith Bros. anyway—cough drops or something?

Our senior rings arrived at long last on Tuesday. Proud owners spent the day showing off their new possessions and in some cases exchanging them. On Friday the snow was so deep and inviting that the whole school left after a half-day session. "Doc" Farrow helped us improve our skiing form up at the Club. Spills and aching muscles were rife, but nothing dented — er, daunted — everyone proceeded to enjoy himself. The next week the White Plains Dramatic Club brought us an expert job of "The Flattering Word" as an exchange assembly.

SPRING

Louie greeted roaring March with an open house, celebrating Jack Hodgson's birthday. Most everyone was happy to sit cozily around the big fireplace while an awful mixture of rain and snow was pouring down outside. Charlie Whitehead threw open the gates too. His library was ransacked as guests found books appropriate to their source themes.

All of a sudden, the work we hadn't been doing so far began to catch up with us, and we settled down to a spring of hard work and good intentions. To divert us, however, popped up the Sophomore Variety Show, featuring the Bary sisters and the Sleepless Knights under the happy direction of Magician Walt Swertfager. Occurring along with the Ides of March was the BANDY deadline. After enough nervous energy had been generated to run the presses, BANDY went triumphantly to press. The Dramatic Club production of "Ceiling Zero" attracted great crowds, as we went to see our favorite senior boys handsomely dressed in Air Force uniforms. Philip Kondratief came to us from Massachusetts, un vrai chic type, and managed to sprain his wrist the first day. After lots of parties, the Bronxville basketball dance, and vain hopes for the Discussion Club Dance, Easter arrived. We drifted placidly through nine days of blissful nothingness until we landed—plunk—into college boards. We met the enemy and after a complete rout we settled back, a bit impatient for graduation rehearsals.

As the weather warmed up, that old feeling got us once more. When the Good Humor man came tinkling his welcome bell, we knew that Spring was here. Fancies began turning to love and other outdoor sports. We felt more like sitting and dreaming than doing anything else. The P. T. A.'s "Mikado" production exhibited unexpected talents. Mr. Lawson's continuous (!) rehearsals of orchestra, choruses, and soloists really made it an unforgettable show.

As the last few grains run out of our senior hour glass, we pause to think about some of the things that made being a senior at S.H.S. so swell — warm lunches outdoors . . . drippy Good Humors at exciting baseball games . . . dancing to soft music at the Spring Prom . . . fighting flies and physics in study hall . . . pizza at Papa John's . . excursions to New York for everything from art museums to the Circus . . . that quaking fear of Regents' and the weak-kneed relief when they are over . . . frantic seconds watching Luckie win the mile . . . Class Day . . and finally those few minutes filled with pride and a little sorrow as we go to get our diplomas (Don't grab!).

Dear Terry
It's really been neat having you in some of my classes and working in Dramatic Club. Best o' luck + remember "the Valiant"
John

Dear Jerry,
Best of luck to my next year's partner-in-crime. We'll have a lot of fun - lots of love, Jeanie

SENIOR G. O. COUNCIL

Third Row—R. Walzer, C. Mosher, R. Jordan, J. Adams, R. Thomas, J. Dillon, G. Hunger, J. Lehr, C. Gager, W. Gillies. Second Row—N. Callaway, N. Seiffer, J. Spence, C. Lockwood, J. Mangan, S. Barnes, L. Burleigh, M. White, B. Biggs, B. O'Brien. First Row—J. Hodgson, E. Brown, W. Sperry, J. Edmonds, Vice-President, J. Greenwood, President, Mr. Beveridge, Adviser, P. Staley, Treasurer, A. Rutherford, Secretary, J. Pilliod.

THE G.O. COUNCIL got right into the swing of things in September. First thing on the agenda was the G.O. drive which carried through with flying colors, thanks to our able Paul. After that came an awkward pause, when the 1946 senior class gift couldn't be found; but it finally turned up in the form of a public address system which was put to good use all year. Amidst the age-old clamor for Senior Privileges, a committee was finally formed. Louis and the gang visited two other schools, decided on privileges, and generally got them okayed from all sides. Senior breakfasts drew a huge crowd in spite of their being held almost in the middle of the night (8 A.M.). If anyone noticed a distraught student rushing around with a pile of papers on alternate Friday mornings, it was only a G.O. representative under the new system of Maroon distribution. At the end of this year, both the G.O. Council and the student body want to give Johnny a pat on the back for his swell job.

JUNIOR G.O. COUNCIL . . . Problems, tangles, and red tape rear their ugly heads in the Junior High School, too. Bill Ughetta was head trouble shooter this year, and a triple "A" job he did, too, as President of a really fine G.O. Council. The Juniors can certainly point with pride to their new offspring, the Scrivener. (Will we ever forget those blazing editorials by Chapin & Co.?)

JUNIOR ACTIVITIES

Standing—F. Carroll, Chairman Activities Committee, B. Branton, Chairman Service Committee, R. Chapin, Junior G. O. Treasurer and Editor of Scrivener. Sitting—S. Singer, Junior G. O. Secretary, W. Ughetta, Junior G. O. President, L. Barnes, Chairman Social Committee, R. Holden, Adviser. Camera Shy—A. Romm, Chairman Constitution Committee, C. Stewart, Junior G.O. Vice-President.

SOCIAL PLANNING BOARD

Standing—H. Lyons, S. Winthrop, D. Flint, M. Gregg. Sitting—N. Knapp, B. Eisele, N. Callaway, J. Hinsey, Miss Chamberlin, Adviser, N. Stern. Camera Shy—G. Wasserberger, J. Young, Chairman.

SOCIAL PLANNING BOARD . . . Ideas and lunch bags bloom in equal profusion at the semi-occasional lunch-time meetings of S. P. B., but things do get done as shown by the four extra-special dances we enjoyed this year. Work? Who would call getting out of classes to decorate the gyms work? You're welcome to your opinion, of course . . . sometimes it is kinda difficult for Jack and Sandy to maintain order among a dozen whirling dervishes while they are trying to decide by demonstrations whether to get a good lindy or samba band. After all the fireworks, S. H. S. turns out en masse to a wonderful party—even if the males are broke for three weeks afterward.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE . . . When Bill walks out on the stage, rubs his hands together, and croons his introduction into the mike, we're always ready for a surprise. Bill and Charlie Stewart of the Junior Hi teamed up with their hard-working committees to turn out some Wednesday morning programs that really made us forget our sadness at being kept away from our first-period classes (?). G. E.'s House of Magic, which kept us all on the edges of our seats, John R. Tunis, Johnny Bothwell and his sultry vocalists, Mr. Geer's political exposition, imported opera singers, dramatic productions, and assorted variety shows provided a well-balanced and entertaining schedule.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

SIGNIFER . . . At a lunchtime meeting of the Cerebrum Society, alias the Medulla Mob, John raps lightly on the nearest table with a human skull and opens the discussion of new business. Attendance slip collection must be taken care of, the Info Desk must be manned, hourly couriers must be dispatched to the office. With that disposed of, the members attack their lunches and close with a recitation of Johnson's definition of a network: "Anything reticulated or decussated at equal distances, with interstices between the intersections. Amen." But seriously, for the benefit of those whose knowledge of Signifer is limited, these are the fellows and gals elected by the members to join the organization on the basis not only of scholarship but extra-curricular participation. Scarsdale can certainly be proud of its large membership.

FORUM . . . The temperature is rising, faces are getting purple, combustion threatens; but Jackie skillfully raps the gavel (on George's head, of course) just in time to avert disaster. Here sit the armchair diplomats of S.H.S., settling with barbed words the problems of the globe. Having discussed everything from atomic control to "Should I call her up, or ask her in school?", nothing fazes them, not even strange audiences that many of them have faced in White Plains, Isaac Young, Hasting, et al.

Hall, N. Gunzenhauser. Camera Shy—L. Bevier, L. Gibson, J. Greenberg, R. Rosecrance, M. J. Unger.

Dear Jerry,
Well, we struggled thru algebra together, and I was so glad you sat near me. You've been a swell friend & I'll miss you next year.
Love
Lyle

MAROON . . . Just about time for "deadline" and our capable lady editor, Betty, is casually going mad. (?!$!). Noel has just written a new feature that couldn't possibly pass the Hays office. Jub-Jub has taken wing somewhere leaving the usual note: "Be back soon, Rig R. Mortis." The Alumni Ed is wondering why anybody ever graduated at all. Dave B. is cussing the broken asterisk key on his typewriter occasioned by Dan's inability to carry two at once (typewriters that is!). Meanwhile the typists, bored stiff, are knitting pink and purple argyles for Mr. Ayer. Louie is assuring his sports writer that of course he'll get a ride to the game, while Mr. A. himself stands at the door, sharpening his pet bodkin. When Betty finally extricates herself from the waste-basket into which she was deposited by the sudden entrance of twenty-eight cub reporters, the bi-weakly (sic) Moron is hustled off to Wick in the nick of time.

JABBERWOCK . . . "I can, I can, I must, I can," has been Jabby's theme song this year. Handicapped by a budget curtailment, Mrs. Bartlett's illness, and a microscopic staff, Jabby was, at first, the victim of a complex inferiority complex. Under its able leader, "Ship," however, Jabby finally managed to tone down the red tape to a delicate pink. Mitch and Dave were busy contributing their witty gems, and John G.'s poetry gave the magazine a professional touch. Jabby proudly ground out senior statistics, essays, poems, short shorts (stories, that is!) and other evidences of S.H.S. intellect.

Langfelder, S. Gotshal, M. Costello, M. Wilber, K. Hurd, L. Watthews, G. Savage, P. Luckstone.

THEATRE CLUB . . . "Tickets, tickets! Have your tickets ready, please! Third aisle to the left, madam. Curtain going up in five minutes—Gad! Who let all these in?"

These are the Scarsdale Theatah Club. They have gotten their passports to the scintillating theatre world through the efforts of Sara and Miss Hook (commission-less, of course)—tickets to such productions as "Showboat," "Joan of Lorraine," and "Happy Birthday."

STAGE DESIGN & BULLETIN BOARD COMMITTEES . . . Given one wish, the Bulletin Board Committee would toss away fame and fortune if only someone would lift the restrictions on scotch tape and invent a spotted paint. We always expect to see Tom sobbing in the hall in front of a bulletin board, with a four-cornered poster and three thumb-tacks. But although scotch tape may be scarce, the decorators insist that there's no shortage of the red variety. Their favorite lament, however, is on the lack of green stuff forthcoming from "Zee G.O.."

N.J.P.'s gang of stage designers have us all envious, the way they slap paint on those flats and make them look like a shelf of books.

STAGE DESIGN AND BULLETIN BOARD COMMITTEES

Grunebaum. First Row—M. Cutting, E. Schive, J. Despres, R. Seely, C. Leahy, J. Sherwin, T. Friedman, N. Price, A. Monroe, M. Freund, B. deLackner.

DRAMATIC CLUB . . Haven't you ever wished that there was grease paint running in your veins? Sounds messy? Well, this bunch of Thespians has tried it under the expert direction of Mr. Lawson and has gotten a big kick out of it, to the edification and entertainment of all of us here at S.H.S. and audiences at White Plains and Eastchester. Most of us who turned out for the grand production of "The Importance of Being Earnest" were really impressed with the job that our histrionic roommates did on that difficult opus. Though perhaps we didn't sound like it (Eh, Miss Hook?), we really admired "The Valiant," and we gripped our seats at "Ceiling Zero."

STAGE, LIGHTING, AND MAKE-UP . . . Lights off!!! Make-up!!! It's the effect that counts. Handling the mysterious set of equipment known only to crew members, the Lighting Crew illumines the ebony blackness of the stage. The Stage Crew makes, sets up, and moves scenery, creating any needed atmospheric conditions (except rain). To top it off, the Make-up Committee, meeting about once every two months to practice its black art, utilizes its talents in playing havoc with old familiar faces. With conscientious effort, all three crews labor the entire school year in outside productions as well as assemblies.

STAGE, LIGHTING, AND MAKE-UP

HEREWITH are a few of these unobtrusive but hard-plugging service committees we couldn't do without:

The CAFETERIA MONITORS iron out the daily labyrinth of chairs and direct trays into the kitchen, instead of under the table where we are all too likely to leave them. They search out hidden spoons—"Just like an Easter egg hunt," says Sue—and retrieve squashed bananas from the ceiling. Now and then they cast a withering look in our direction when we forget to remove the straw from our milk bottle, but what would the place be without them!

At this point we must break into verse, so inspiring is our subject; we think it will explain everything about the TRAFFIC SQUAD:

Keep that traffic moving:
That car, pull over here!
Park the Buick in the front,
That Chevvy in the rear.
Braving bitter weather,
Enforcing safety rules,
The members of the Traffic Squad
Direct us reckless fools.

When Mr. Clark suddenly issues homework that demands graph paper, of course we all dash to the SCHOOL STORE. There, sans all profit—natch—Cal and Junior High staff, under Miss Mayer's supervision, dispense paper, pencils, rulers, notebooks, and those puzzling book covers, with patience and efficiency.

CAFETERIA SQUAD

SERVICE ROLL COMMITTEE

SERVICE ROLL COMMITTEE . . . This group, although it receives little attention in school, is the one which is constantly checking and adding the names of these Scarsdale alumni who have served Uncle Sam at the battle-stations of the world. Headed by Lucinda and Miss Sutch, the girls give up badly-needed study halls to keep the Service Roll up to date. We all look forward to the completion of the committee's plans for a permanent memorial.

FRENCH CLUB

Fifth Row—J. Ross, M. Unger, D. Carret, I. Stableford, A. Anrews, A. Ruthford, C. Lockwood, B. Broenniman, J. Law, J. Eschenbach, A. Merwin, R. Rosenthal, N. Price. Fourth Row—S. Swyers, R. Conant, B. Hall, D. Eagleson, E. Schive, G. Paddock, D. Irvine, E. Moore, L. Burleigh, J. E. Gates, J. Young, G. Newlin, J. Pegg, J. Greenberg, D. Baumann. Third Row—Miss Glenndenning, Adviser, E. Leppert, G.

FRENCH CLUB . . . They say it's the atmosphere that does it, and the new habitat du Cercle Français surely has it. Miss Glendenning gayly stands by the piano whilst Mr. Reid plays some French ditty on the ivories. On entering the precincts, one has his ears assailed by a motley collection of gibberish. It's okay, they know what they're talking about.

Here we have a membership of about 66½. (The one-half represents a conscientious seventh-grader who can't quite keep up.) All are rapidly absorbing a whole world of culture from M. Reid and Mlle. Glendenning—"Cyrano," French art, Moliere, French restaurants . . . especially that extra twenty-five francs for a glass of bon vin. Why, Phil rattles off his French like a native already!

Savage, B. Schoonmaker, B. Lee, C. Zuccaro, G. Ellis, E. Cannon, V. Morris, G. Medley, J. Wesseler, B. Sengstaken, J. Perkins, L. Grunebaum, H. Weaver, N. Despres, Mr. Reid, Adviser. Sitting—S. Winthrop, C. Fry, W. Warrendorf, E. Langfelder, B. Hollhaus, I. Kihlstadt, Secretaary, P. Bruno, President, S. Gotshal, Vice-President, S. Atwood, L. Stander, N. Walker, G. Fischel, M. J. Patten. Kneeling—M. Robertson, S. Blitzer, M. Lober, J. Aronson, M. Cohn, J. Whitehill, J. Berger, J. Reiffel, N. Seiffer, M. Rosenfeld, D. Jaffin, M. Silberman. Camera Shy—E. Gutterman, C. Mansfield, P. Miller, R. Mitchell, J. Prothers, V. Small, T. Warner.

PRINTING AND PROJECTION CLUBS

PRINTING AND PROJECTION CLUBS . . . The motion picture hath charms to sooth even Hardy and Elbe after a hard day's work over a hot press. Whenever you set out eagerly for the Projection Room, free from a period of drudgery, these samaritans of the Projection Club are ready to reel off a little something on France, correct posture, the signing of the Constitution, or football plays. True, Patrick Henry sometimes pauses, hand in air, while a twisted heap of film is re-wound by the boys, but we love 'em just the same. Then, too, we always appreciate getting our football schedules from the print shop before the end of the basketball season.

GERMAN CLUB . . . What has the music world got that the German Club hasn't? You might say opera singers if you hadn't heard Pete, Richard, Jim, Harry, and Sally exercising their tonsils for the benefit of fellow club members. Besides vocalizing, this hair-raising group of "Till Eulenspiegel's" spends much of its time conversing in "Deutsch" and expounding on the lives of famous Germans. The process of conversation consists of dead silence for about five minutes, followed by utter confusion as everyone talks at once. Passing the bottle (for Red Cross donations, that is) is the penalty for using the English language.

GERMAN CLUB

Standing—R. Brooks, G. Phillips. R. Walter, L. Grunebaum, H. Krehbiel, W. Rothschild, D. Wilderman. Sitting—P. Krehbiel, K. Kniel, President, Mrs. Marshall, Adviser, S. Flett, J. MacDowell, W. Cohn.

Standing—N. Wolff, J. Marvin, L. Hecht, I. Stableford, B. Young, C. Just, J. Evans, L. Andrews, S. Barnes, B. Smith, N. Callaway, D. Wilkins. Sitting—J. Krause, Mrs. Shultz, Adviser, N. Katcher, J. Waxman, P. Mohr, E. Cannon, E. Mallan, R. Brown. Kneeling—A. Haas, C. Eaton, M. Buschen, G. Carpenter, A. Easton, P. Austin, E. Friedman, N. Chilson.

RED CROSS . . . "Aw, come on—just a dime! It's a worthy cause, and besides you get a beautiful pin," quoth the Red Cross representatives, and they are as right as rain. Here is the group that administers within the school one of the most vital organizations that we are asked to contribute to each year. Its members have busied themselves with such activities as Christmas boxes, scrapbooks, and handicraft articles for veterans and for the needy abroad, as well as envelope-addressing and money-raising. Under the guidance of Mrs. Shultz, the organization has spread its wings to shelter a new seventh grade knittin' and sewin' unit.

CHESS CLUB . . . The King approaches the Castle, assaults the Knight, knocks down the Bishop, and joins the Queen at last. Pawns scurry in all directions and an ominous shadow crosses Mr. Pratt's brow. Karl and the boys may not have been too successful in the Westchester League this year, but it was fun . . . Check!

CHESS CLUB

CLASSICS CLUB

Second Row—P. Dalton, J. Sherwin, N. Burchard, D. Cameron, N. Keane, D. Gutterman, R. Byfield, J. Caesar, First Row— J. Berger, B. Eisele, N. Flint, Miss Rose, Adviser, T. Garbaty.

CLASSICS CLUB . . . Now here is a bunch of really amazing students—amazing, that is, because they've stuck it out so long. They can pull a Latin declension out of a hat quicker than those magicians down below. Even Cicero might have been persuaded to take a few moments off from his Catilinean orations to join in the annual fun at the Roman banquet of Saturnalia; except that he probably would have mugged the picture that the Dispatch photographer took this year! You'll notice that J. Caesar managed to sneak into the picture above. What stuffed shirts (or togas) some of these Romans were! But don't let a Classic Club member hear you talking like this or you're likely to get tossed right into the Styx River.

MAGICIANS' CLUB . . . Look into the crystal ball and the future will be foretold. Presto! The cat's out of the bag, the rabbit's out of the hat, and eight Gillette Blue Blades dangle from Swertfager's lips. Stupefying, amazing—but, alas and alack, Mr. Tew permits no sleight-of-hand in the marks department! Of course these swamis deny any talk of the hand being quicker than the eye and insist that their tricks are strictly on the up and up—but we know better. I still would like to know where that bouquet of flowers came from, though.

MAGICIAN'S CLUB

PUBLICITY CLUB . . . The Publicity Club publicizes. (Not really!) It is up to its large assortment of members to see that we know all the "what's," "where's," "when's," and "how much's" of every school activity—no mean feat when you add up all the concerts, plays, dances, et al and multiply by several posters apiece. But this high-pressure group, under Nancy's able leadership, broadcast the news to every corner and cranny in the building so that we all learned in due time of "The Importance of Being Earnest," the "Messiah," and all the rest.

ADVERTISING CLUB . . . "A" for advertising and "A plus" for the steady toil of this bunch. Here are the people who do the pavement-pounding that helps pay for all our school publications. It is Dora Jean's faithful cohorts who pester our local industry and commerce for ads to bolster the finances of MAROON, JABBY, and BANDY. Waving fine-print contracts in the faces of prospective customers, the gals managed to fill up that vital twenty-odd pages at the back of our book. (Lucky thing, too!)

Ask the Library Staff (Better known as Harriet's Harrowed Helpers.). Putting books where we can find them, sorting slips, and serving at faculty teas constitute only a small portion of their labors. The card catalogue, indispensable to source-theme-writing seniors, is kept in order by these industrious gals. They also arrange book loans from other libraries and perform all the numerous chores without which our library would not be the well-organized institution it is today.

VARSITY CLUB . . . The installment of a Scarsdale "Hall of Fame" near the gyms was foremost among the activities of the lettermen appreciated by the alma mater this year. The members also devoted much time to the intramural programs, as well as providing supervision for the Varsity football and basketball games, keeping the crowds well in hand. In March the boys joined with the G.O. in sponsoring the Basketball Dance, one of the highlights of the school year.

RIFLE CLUB . . . Bing! "Ya got me, Joe; take care of Mary and the brats." Fortunately, it's not usual for Rifle Club members to use human guinea pigs for targets; from the sound of things, however, one might think a pitched battle were in progress, that the school were being attacked, or that men from Mars had fortified Room 40. But the shooting is just the work of our local dead-eyes with their trusty "22's" as they commence an afternoon's target practice on the school range. This year saw the start of an interschool rifle team which, we hope, will grow in years to come.

MUSIC . . . Clash those cymbals, slap that brass, blow that tuba! That's it—mellow-rooney! It may seem strange, but strains of "Putty Putty" and something from Mozart or Bach may easily appear side by side on a program presented by S.H.S.'s orchestra. This rapidly growing organization took part in the production of the "Messiah," accompanied the choruses in their rendition of "The Mikado," and put on a versatile concert of their own. They attribute their success to the excellent leadership of Mr. Bley and the firm, rhythmic beat of their mainstays in the percussion section.

Second only to the Rifle Club in noise-making potential, the Senior Band, bigger and better than ever, (We could hardly squeeze them all in the picture.) did Scarsdale proud at every football game. Under the waving baton of Mr. Briggs, their spring concert was, as usual, tops—and we have them to thank for starting our sleepy Wednesday mornings with a clash of cymbals and fanfare. The boys and gals in the Band finally got their well-deserved emblems this year. Theirs is the traditional "S" with a lyre in the middle . . . the musical instrument like a harp, not the liar that's most common to us. Warming up in the musical bull-pen for the years ahead are our rootin' tootin' musicians-in-training, the Junior Band and Orchestra.

Up in the tower, where "The Music Goes Round and Round," acres of tonsils set the scene, silhouetted against "Blue Skies," as the combined choruses limber up. The solo of John or Ship soars up "Over the Rainbow," and the choruses chime in to make "Strange Music." (?) "Thank Your Lucky Stars," plus Hornie, Richy, Russ, et al, for those swell performances of the "Messiah" and of "The Mikado."

SPORTS

YOU may think that cheerleading stuff is all bunk and just sissy stuff, but Anne and Edna told us in confidential tones that weak femininity went out with the coming of Sugarbaker. Now it's up and at 'em, and these gals really rough it.

The Raiders suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Pelham Pelicans at Memorial Field, 31-6, although they chalked up 16 first downs to Pelham's five. Interceptions proved to be Scarsdale's undoing. Scarsdale got to a quick start in the Darien game, as Gillies knifed off-tackle for six points. In the second period, Harry Lyons took a 23-yard pass from Bill Sperry, sprinting 25 yards for a tally. Gillies smacked over for the extra point; and two periods later, MacDowell converted, after Staley crashed through the Darien defense for the final tally, 20-0. The Eastchester Eagles reversed that score the next week. The Raiders threatened late in the contest when Corelli ran back an Eagle kick to the Eagle 44; Jacobson and Staley took the ball to the 11 as the clock ran out.

In the most thrilling game seen here in several years, the Maroon upset a powerful Isaac Young eleven, 7-6. In the third quarter the Knights succeeded in scoring on a long pass; but their attempt for an extra point was blocked. In the waning minutes of the fourth period, Ron Corelli started a drive that carried to the visitors' 37 in two plays. With 15 seconds remaining, a desperate Jacobsen-to-Lyons pass hit the jack-pot. With the line holding like a block of granite, "streetshoe" MacDowell came through with the winning point. Scarsdale dominated the last home game against Blessed Sacrament, handing them a 21-6 defeat. The Maroon scored in the opening period on a spectacular aerial play in which Jacobsen, Lyons, Staley, and Corelli handled the ball, the latter going over for the T.D. "Rapid Ron" scored again, on a left end sweep. After the visitors took advantage of a blocked kick to put over their lone tally, Scarsdale bounced back on a pass from Jake to Harry, who crossed the double stripe after a brilliant, weaving run.

The big game ended in a heartbreaking 14-6 score. An opening Maroon drive was halted on the Blue nine; an attempted field goal by MacDowell bounced off the right post; and a Raider attack was interrupted on the 20 by the half-time whistle. The Raiders were back in the ball game in the second half, holding the hosts to meager gains and scoring themselves on a long push culminated by Ron's off-tackle crash. A late pass from Sperry to Lyons carried 73 yards for a would-be touchdown, but the referee called Harry out on the 30.

The Jayvees came up with the first undefeated, untied, and unscored-upon season in the school's history. In five tough games they amassed 56 points to none for their opponents, presenting rosy prospects for the 1947 season.

Here I am meditating on something bright to say, but nothing comes. Ah well, have a lush summer and write me lots. Here's to our troubles & tribulations — but it's been fun anyhow. You were swell in those plays and made me sorry I quit Dramatic Club (I was "Beulah" in a one-act play!) And congrats on being art-editor — you deserved it! HANDS together on that drive! No, that's obstruction! The other way! The hockey team, captained by Joan Dippy and Nancy Keane and chosen with great difficulty after many crack-o'-dawn practices, was out for an undefeated season.

On a muddy field, the rather diffident varsity drove and dribbled to a 1-1 deadlock with Chappaqua. After a scoreless first half, both teams tallied, Nan scoring for Scarsdale. Our backbone was Sal's defensive playing.

In our second game, with Pleasantville (more like ice-hockey), Connie, Joy, Dip, Nan, and Anne were able to pass the ball twice into Pleasantville territory. Anne Rutherford scored for the varsity in the early minutes of the game. Scarsdale was able to tally again in the second half, with Nancy giving the last tap to the ball. It was a perfect day, as the J.V. team, captained by Nancy Seiffer and Nancy Knapp, kept pace with the first team to win 2-0. Ruthie and June drove the ball into the nets for Scarsdale's two tallies.

Our defensive commandos, Sal, Di, Piccot, Ellie, Cov, and Alice, gained another 2-0 victory over Pelham. Scarsdale's two points were scored by Dip and Nan. This game proved to be the best of the season, both teams being very evenly matched. The second team, although driving the ball into Pelham territory quite often, was unable to score and the game resulted in a scoreless tie. Nan Knapp, with her powerful defensive stick, managed to keep Pelham at a safe distance.

The annual Junior-Senior game was played after the schedule was completed. Need we say more than, "Bouquets to the seniors on a 6-0 victory; and you'll have your chance, juniors, when we're gone next year."

mural and interscholastic schedules, student referee tests, and improvements in the gym program. Thanks to them for the successful hockey and basketball seasons.

THE girls' basketball season opened violently, as 175 basketeers turned out to elect intramural captains and compete for honors. Right up to the last, Nancy Knapp and Sherry Bouchelle were racing for first place in White honors, while Connie O'Connor and Nancy Keane kept close tabs on each other in the Maroon struggle. About four mass tryouts were held for the three honor squads. Emerging on top of the heap were "Dead-eye" Dip, Ruthie, Jane and Nan rotating at forward, and Du, Nancy Knapp, Seif and Janie at guard.

Through the combined efforts and aches of all eight, we defeated Isaac Young 22-14, lost to Bronxville and Pelham by a slim 24-23, and routed Pleasantville 40-17. Anne Rutherford and Lucinda Gibson paced the second team in the scoring column, while Sandy, Joy, Hick and Dottie pared down the opponent's would-be tallies. The second team displayed the power of a steam-roller, submerging their adversaries 'neath huge scores. The third squad, holding an undefeated record, was paced by the consistent scoring of Sally Dennis.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

THE hair-raising '47 season got off to a flying start with an electrifying triumph over Fieldston in the final eight seconds. With thirty seconds remaining, Fieldston had knotted the score at 33-all, when Harry Lyons bagged the game with a looping mid-court shot. Halsted was snowed under, 50-37 in the local opener. Sperry and Staley inaugurated their loudspeaker announcing of home contests. Isaac Young, still smarting from its football defeat, turned the tables on the basketball Raiders 41-31. The Maroon bounced back to capture a thriller from Ardsley 32-31. Again it was Lyons who saved the game, scoring on a left-handed heave in the last ten seconds to reverse a one-point defeat. A fourteen-point splurge paced by Jack Moyer in the last four minutes stopped undefeated Hackley 42-27. It was five out of six as Briarcliff succumbed 52-34. Our three game streak was ended abruptly by Rye 37-25. The Maroon plowed over our old rivals from Bronxville, 57-27, to provide the greatest margin of victory compiled during the season. Roger Pierce worked like a conveyor belt under the basket, putting in 21 points to lead the scoring. Concordia went down 46-33.

A "sudden death" period in the Pelham contest proved deadly to the Raiders. The Blue and White came from behind to tie up the game 26-all in the waning minutes. After one overtime period had ended in another knotted score, the Pelham center nosed out the Scarsdalians 34-32. The Eastchester Eagles had their wings clipped 38-34 in one of the big upsets of the season, as Smith Bros. Inc. suffered defeat on its own court for the first time in two years. Bud Renz tied things up at 19-19 in the middle of the third quarter and the Eagles were never ahead again. Ned Brown was top man with 11 points.

After heavy snow cancelled the Barnard game, the Maroon ended N.Y.S.D.'s nine-game winning streak 34-33 in the most exciting game in many years. The visitors pulled away to a 4-point lead at the outset, but after that time the two teams traded one- and two-point margins right to the finish. Bruce Carswell captured the contest with a shot that was as close as any ever was. As the final whistle blew, the ball was arching through the air for the winning score. Bruce started off the season a heavy scorer, but a knee injury had kept him on the bench since the Ardsley game. Pelham turned on the power in the final period to win again 34-30 in a hotly contested game on their court. SWIAC-topping Harrison added a defeat to the record 45-30.

For dessert the Raiders once again polished off the Bronxville Broncos 53-41. Roger Pierce hit the high-water mark for the season with 22 points. Roger took individual scoring honors for the season putting in 49 field goals and 39 foul shots for a total of 137 points. Jack Moyer's shots from the sideline helped run up his 132 points. Harry Lyons put his 117 points where they counted most. Harry's mate at guard was Bud Renz, who supplemented his excellent team play with real offensive drives towards the end of the season. Backing up these stalwarts were John Greenwood and Ned Brown who rose to the starting lineup and the top scoring brackets to capture the N.Y.S.D. game. By virtue of their ten-won five-lost record, the team once again earned the right to enter the District 1 tournament at the County Center.

The Junior Raiders were unbeatable early in the season. A 25-24 defeat by the Broncos cut the two-year Jayvee winning streak at twenty games and started them on a string of three losses; but they came back to post a ten-won three-lost record. With these boys moving up to Varsity next year, it looks like another fine team for Scarsdale and Coach Bill Schmidt in '48.

Dear Terry. I sure has been swell getting to know you this year + being in the same homeroom. The best of all good things in all that you wish to do. -always- Johnnie Di WRESTLING . . . As part of the post-war reconstruction this year, wrestling was added to the Scarsdale interscholastic agenda. Scarsdale boys were not hesitant to display the benefits of their Charles Atlas courses. Grunts and groans were heard in the gym for many weeks before the squad tangled with N. Y. S. D., its first opponent, and came out "on top" 35-19. Their next entanglement ended in a 22-12 defeat by Trinity. No Scarsdale man was pinned in the return match with N. Y. S. D., but in the following weeks, the brawny boys bowed to more experienced teams from Nyack and the School for the Blind. Young fellows like Jimmy Jiraneck, John DiModugna, Bart McNamee and Al Temple should help to make the Scarsdale team a regular activity.

GOLF . . . With that old professional, Mr. Hatch, acting as coach the golf team was once more seen fanning the fairways. Prospects for the '47 season look bright as Captain Bob Smith, John MacDowell, Dave Florence, Jim Reed, and Phil Clark have all returned from last year's team. In '46, although a majority of the matches were rained out, the boys compiled a 2 won, 1 lost record. Smith showed himself to be the county's number one golfer, taking first place in the 1946 Westchester County Junior Championship.

TRACK

COACH Fred Wohlers celebrated his return to S.H.S. last year by turning out Scarsdale's ninth undefeated track team. Nine schools tasted defeat at the hands of the Maroon during the 1946 season. To climax a banner year, the trackmen went on to establish their supremacy among all the track teams in Westchester by capturing the trophy in the annual New York State Section One Tournament, held in White Plains.

Two records were broken by the track team of 1946: Bill Neill clocked 0.22:6 in the 220, and Bob Brown ('46) made a leap of 22 feet one and a quarter inches in the broad jump, at the White Plains tournament. The sprint section, ably coached by Mr. Steele and the liniment bottle, was well-nigh indefeatable with Bill Neil backed up by Bill Seibert and Ike Stewart ('46). Gregory Sheridan and Barry Singer handled the middle distances; Bob Luckhardt controlled the mile, taking first place in the county meet. Jack Lehr, John MacDowell and Dick Hill were leaders in field events. With these three, plus Luckhardt, Sheridan, and Singer back in the running this season, the '47 track team cannot be anything but successful.

After the initial meet with Mamaroneck was cancelled, the trackmen deadlocked with Roosevelt 43-all. Eastchester was trounced 64-31. The squad traveled to Pelham on May 29 and played host to Bronxville on June 4.

Last fall cross-country running came back to Scarsdale after a wartime lapse. Scarsdale joined a number of triangular meets in which Bob Luckhardt consistently came in first. In the White Plains meet he took third. The experience of this year's rather informal schedule should help toward making a championship team next fall.

WITH Tommy Lewyn as number one man for the third year in succession and no top-bracket players lost in graduation, the boys' tennis squad lost none of their early matches. The Maroon team of '46 had a record of seven victories, losing only to Horace Mann. Brown, Pierce and Barclay ably backed up Lewyn in the other singles slots. All of these boys are back this year under the watchful eye of Mr. Pratt.

DESPITE those lumpy courts and a shortage of nets, the girls' tennis team, coached by Miss Remy, is displaying great ability this year. Sue, Nan Flint and Joyce are the team veterans, while those "sharpies," Lulu and Nan, are new recruits.

THE Friar Tucks of the archery team (no reference to the shape) are showing up in good form, aided by Robin Hood Isenberg's instructions . . . elbows straight, head up, relax, shoulders down. They offer accurate and straight shooting to all competitors.

BOYS' BASEBALL . . . The first robin that perched on Mr. Leonard's shoulder this March got a shock he'll never forget, as Mr. L. was galvanized into action by the smell of Spring. The baseball diamond was shortly the scene of much activity, as the boys whipped the horsehide around in preparation for another season. With fiery Ed Mewing and rubber-armed Bob Jordan sparking the infield, and Naylor, Renz, Sperry and Tappin, the other returning lettermen, the Scarsdale nine went undefeated for six games before a close one was dropped to Irvington 8-7.

GIRLS' BASEBALL . . . Scarsdale's female baseball squad is batting, fielding, and stumbling through many conscientious practices these days. (Conscientious—what with boys' track not ten paces away, and that non-resisting Good-Humor man up the road.) With both squads comprised mostly of veterans of last season, our Bronxville, Pleasantville, and Pelham opponents should find teams bursting with enthusiasm and skill.

Dear Terry,

I could think of enough to fill this page, but I don't think I'll have time to finish it. Mr. Beveridge is trying desperately to make suggestions about the Latin regents. I hope he doesn't give us the big vocab test he promised to give, but I'm afraid hoping will do no good. I've had a swell time with you in Latin class.

Never forgot the Vice-Versa Dance at Betty Lou's. It was fun even though the boys were a little shocked.

I hope we get the pictures Roger took before we're fifty. I don't know though. He can be awfully slow sometime.

Guess I'd better sign off. Mr. Beveridge is about to give us our test. Have loads of fun at camp, teaching all the kids how to make lanyards.

Much love,

Janie

REFLECTIONS

of you and your classmates upon your school life achieve ● immortality in a carefully planned and executed yearbook.

From the arid desert of Arizona, and the sultry green island of Puerto Rico, to the snow-blanketed slopes of Northern New England, we have traveled, happy and proud to have been an instrument in the translating into print, the humor pathos, excitement, and sentiment found in the campus ● life of over seventy-five colleges and preparatory schools.

As former members of yearbook staffs in our school days, we bring into our professional duties a real understanding ● of the many problems confronting each yearbook editor.
